Quarantined bachelor party

This is rare, my marriage was scheduled, right at the beginning of the quarantine in Vienna.

My wife does not really rationalize the dangers of Covid much, so my marriage took place behind closed doors, few guests, on the planned date.

I really would have preferred to wait, but you know how girls are with their marriage plans.

Ultimately she, her mother and friends took care of all the preparations, and for my part my friends and I were sorry for the terrible loss of our bachelor party.

Initially we had planned to go to Romania, some girls trained to provide sexual pleasures would be waiting for us, for an uncontrolled weekend ... But with the Covid quarantine all this had ended is a fiasco and I saw a great frustration coming.

However my friend Franz, the last and eternal bachelor, did not want to abandon the idea of an animal bachelor party, so he was contriving to smuggle the girls from Romania to our friends house in the mountains.

However, when the idea began to roll, the government simply put a more severe quarantine, which made my bachelor party seem more difficult every moment.

But Franz did not give up, so he planned the way to do my bachelor party, however we had to try several methods.

Initially we were in a White Cube (virtual meeting reference in 360 °) where we all gathered around a girl and she did kinky things for us, virtually. Something exciting, but nothing to enjoy.

Then we were in a simultaneous with 12 webcam girls, something kinky and dirty that I loved, but nothing special.

The next day we received an email from a girl who shared an apartment with two other girls in Moscow, and they offered us a virtual reality experience, they offered us 24 hours of her and her companions having sex, bathing, waxing and everything that girls do. in your privacy.

I swear it was the dirtiest and most morbid experience we could ever experience, I spent hours without moving, these girls were dirty and sexually active.

We hire our own reality show, sex and intimacy.

I think this broke all the parameters of my goodbye wish, and now Franz has promised that we are going to lock ourselves up with these crazy girls when we can travel to Moscow.

Bigger penis with a trick, and it's not advertising

This is a cliché, this is more of the same, this has no real importance at all.

We already know that the average penis measures 13cm, and that its circumference should be around 10cm, and that the orgasmic size is 15cm, but that from 16cm onwards, girls feel pain ... We already know this level of repetitive and boring information, about this I do not want to talk to you in this post, I want to talk to you about an aesthetic method, easy painless and above all that helps if you want to see it longer.

I come to introduce you to liposuction of the pubis, a very simple process, which in short consists of making a small hole and removing the pubic fat (it is located in the upper part of the penis, in front of the pubic bone), which will make this chubby detach from the bone between 2 and 4cm of pure fat. Don't worry, your penis will not be touched, the release of this fat is a different part that does not touch any part of your reproductive system.

I had the opportunity to make a chronicle of it, a 41-year-old man, who wanted to improve his aesthetics, I will tell you below:

All this begins with an appointment where the urologist, who evaluates several routine exams, and explains that you must maintain a small diet before surgery.

The surgery was scheduled at a clinic in the city at 7:00 am, with local anesthesia, so the patient was always aware of his process.

At around 8:00 a.m., after a small disinfection of the area, the doctor opens a small hole in the lower corner of the area, this hole does not measure more than half a centimeter, where it breaks some white tissues, so that the grease sucker can enter.

Simply and gradually suck out all the fat, gently, and close the small incision with a stitch.

This entire procedure lasts approximately 12 minutes, but there is a recovery wait of 2 hours, for prevention.

Afterwards, you have to rest for a couple of days, and take some anti-inflammatories, they also suggest some massages so that the skin sticks and is not fluid without all the fat removed.

Therefore in less than a week your penis will look longer, and it will feel like one, without any repercussions.
